2. Petitioner Ranganamma is reported to have no children or anybody to take care of her. She has Rs 125/- in cash with her and she wishes to offer it to the Sri Ranganatha Swami temple as Pudurval for certain Sevarthas viz: to utilize the interest on Rs 100/- for expenses on Ranga jayanthi and interest on Rs 25/- for Pushpa Seve to Sri Srinivasa Devaru situate in

The Prakara on Bohadha Shudha Purnima day. Having no one to support her and wish -ing to end her life in the sacred place (Seringapatam) by offer- -ing her services to God she re- quests that she may be fed at the Ramanuja Koota. The privilege sought for by her appears to have been granted to certain persons on former occasions (Vide extract marked "B" in red pencil filed with the records).

3 No separate allotment has been made for distribution of rice at the Ramanuja Koota. The required quantity of rice with condiments are supplied daily from the chattram at Seringapatam and cooked rice (Kuli and curd anna with chellani) is being served to bona fide travellers in the temple from the year 1895.

4. From the statement marked "C" filed with the records it will be observed that the average consumption per mensem at the Ramanuja Koota is about 190 seers of rice with the necessary condiments.

5. The Sub Division officer states that in
